

DUAL CREDIT OPPORTUNITY FOR LEADERSHIP CLASS

Drury University offers Missouri schools that teach a leadership course the opportunity for enrolled students to earn college dual credit. If you are presently teaching or are planning to teach a leadership course, contact Drury's Dual Credit Coordinator, Jane Lindsey to participate in the program: (417) 830-9533 or jlindsey@drury.edu.

COURSE DETAILS

1. Three hours of credit for one semester through Drury University, Springfield, MO
2. If you are teaching a full year course, students can choose in which semester they earn the college credit
3. $70 per credit hour
4. Students eligible for dual credit must meet the following requirements:
 - 18 or higher composite ACT or 3.0 or higher overall GPA
 - Juniors and seniors preferred
5. Teacher must hold a master's degree - in any subject
6. Students must log community service hours during the semester - there is no set number of community service hours required - but there must be hours incorporated into the class expectations (objectives)

HOW TO ENROLL YOUR SCHOOL

1. Contact Jane Lindsey - Drury's Dual Credit Coordinator at (417) 830-9533 or jlindsey@drury.edu
2. Complete Drury's adjunct teacher application
3. Send undergraduate and graduate transcripts as well as a copy of your resume
4. After the application is approved you will need to send your course syllabus and assessment information
5. Approval process takes about two weeks
